CV SUMMARY

Full Professor of Economics at University of Huelva. Research fellow in the Erasmus School of Economics (Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam, NH). PhD Program Coordinator (PhD Program in Economics, Finance and Computer Science, University of Huelva and International University of Andalusia) (2018-21). Program Director of the Master in Big Data, International University of Andalusia (2020-21).

He was also Head of the Spanish Entrepreneurship Research Group (2007-2019) and coordinator of the Regional Economics Research Group at the Fundación Centro de Estudios Andaluces (2003-2005). He has previously been Head of Economics and Director of Academic Affairs. Co-Editor in Chief of Revista de Economía Laboral, Asociación Española de Economía del Trabajo (Spanish Labour Economics Association).

Most of his research has been published in indexed academic journals (Small Business Economics, Tourism Management, Journal of Business Venturing, International Small Business Journal, Industry and Trade, Empirical Economics, Journal of Policy Modeling, Economic Modelling, Energy Policy, among others) and some chapters and books in reputed international Publishers (Springer, Edward Elgar, Emerald).

His current research focuses on self-employment resilience, voluntary and involuntary, platform workers, and policy evaluation of job retention schemes.
